The subcommittee met, pursuant to call, at 10:36 a. m., in room 311, Cannon House Office Building, Hon. Thomas C. Sawyer (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Members present: Representatives Sawyer and Wynn. Mr. Sawyer. Good morning. Welcome to the latest installation of what my ranking member has come to call census seminars. Today we would like to talk about the Census Bureau s recent report. The Appropriations Committee asked for the report because of its continued concern about the scope and the pace of the planning efforts. The primary testing of that planning effort and the preparation for the next census will take place in a year. At the last hearing we took a look at whether the plans addressed the concerns that we have heard expressed throughout the Congress about accuracy and cost. The Bureau is going to have to cover a lot of ground in a very short period of time. So, toward that end, we wanted to look today at how things are going and whether there are legislative changes that might be needed. The Department of Commerce is considering whether or not any laws will need to be changed to allow use of sampling in the census. I have a sense, at least from a lay position, that there...
