Not illustrated. 1921 Excerpt: .St Clair County Sup rs, 45 Mich. 479. f 1 497. One of the counties continued without objection for three years to pay its proportion of $2,000, but the supervisors then voted to reduce the sum to be paid by them to $600. The stenographer received this without protest for four years, when the supervisors withdrew their assent to the employment and refused to pay longer. Held, that under these circumstances it must be deemed that no arrangement has been made, except so far as one party has paid and the other received money in satisfaction of services previously rendered.--Hitchcock v. Blackmail. 47 Mich. 146. f 1 498. Where an officer claims compensation for services not within the scope of his 107 duties they cannot be shown to have been gratuitous by evidence that he made no claim for compensation in conversation with third persons who would...
