The National Archives UK. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 112 pages. Dimensions: 5.8in. x 5.3in. x 0.7in. Dr Crippens murder of his wife Cora has stuck in the public imagination for many reasons: the harmless demeanour of this cold-blooded poisoner; the flamboyant victim; and, the dismembered body in the cellar at the infamous 39 Hilldrop Crescent - and not forgetting a dramatic police chase which caught Crippen and his mistress Ethel le Neve halfway across the Atlantic. The story has all the best ingredients: sex and love, secrets and lies, but it is the detail from the documents that fascinates, such as Crippens account of marital bickering that preceded his wifes disappearance, and the daily media accounts of the police net closing on the fleeing couple. This bloody history combines a gripping narrative with facts from witness statements, police reports, and the chilling words of a killer claiming So far as I know she is still alive. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
