This book was written to remind us that we all have fallen short of the glory of God, therefore we need to be mindful of how we view others. We tend to find fault in others because it is easier than facing the truth. This book deals with love, hardships, and how our expectations of others tend to lead us to disappointments. My parents, aunts, uncles, Pastor, friends, and children have played a large portion of encouragement in my life. They taught me that in order to gain respect we must first show respect to others. The Bible taught me that we must do unto others as we would have them to do unto us. In the year of 1998 I preached my initial sermon Who could ask for anything more? I was Ordained in 2000 as a Minister in the Northeast B Conference under the leadership of Bishop C.R Parker. The Gospel according to St. John 9:4, I must do the work of Him that sent me while it is day, night cometh when no man can work.
