By A. S. Peterson

Rabbit Room Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 293 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Revolution. Secrets. Adventure. America is on the brink of war with England, and Fin Button is about to come undone. Shes had it with the dull life of the orphanage, and shes ready to marry Peter and get away from rules, chores, and a life looked after by the ever-watchful Sister Hilde. But an unexpected friendship forms between Fin and the fiddle-playing cook, Bartimaeus, which sets her on a course for revolution. With Barts beloved fiddle and haunting blunderbuss as her only possessions, Fin discovers her first taste of freedom as a sailor aboard the Rattlesnake. Shes hiding some dark secrets, but there are bigger problems for the crew: they are on the run from the Royal Navy, and whispers of mutiny are turning the captain into a tyrant. When Fin finally returns home, will she find Peter still waiting, or will she find that shes lost everything she once held dear This item ships from multiple locations.
