PERKIN THE PEDLAR

There was once a place called Zeal Monachorum, and for the matter of that, there still is. If you think it does not sound like a place of any account, you are right.

PERKIN THE PEDLAR
Eleanor Farjeon

What he did was to go about every here and there he came to a town or a village on his way. Presently he came to a big bare space, where there wasn't a place of any sort. So he stopped his walk, and stamped his foot, and turned round three times backwards, muttering: 'Zeal Monachorum! High Coekslorund! Ahens! om! Ridow! om!
