

Frank Lloyd Wright: Architect (Paperback)

By Jan Adkins

Penguin Putnam Inc, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Reprint. 175 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A genius with a troubled personal history, Frank Lloyd Wright was a true American celebrity. His love for the limelight was only surpassed by his love for architecture. Often riddled with debt, he led a lavish lifestyle that was beyond his means. A divorced man, he carried on relationships with women that often became fodder for tabloid covers. But despite it all, Frank Lloyd Wright had an undeniable talent that has created many of the great buildings in this country and throughout the world. Discover the man behind the genius in this well-researched biography about the man who created a unique American style of architecture.
