Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Truman Smith of Conn; On the French Spoliation Claims: Delivered in the Senate of the United States, January 16 17, 1851 The bill to provide for the ascertainment and satisfaction of claims of American citizens for Spoliations committed by the French prior to the 31st July, 1801, being under consideration; Mr. Smith addressed the Senate as follows: The question comprised in this bill is, whether this Government is not under an equitable obligation to make some indemnity to those of our citizens who suffered by the spoilation of the French anterior to the ratification of the Convention of 30th September, 1800. If I were to consult my own feelings, I should be prepared to refer this question to the judgment and vote of the Senate, without a single remark on my part. The subject has been so long before Congress, has been so often and so thoroughly examined in reports submitted from time to time in the Senate and House of Representatives, and has also been so frequently and so ably discussed...
