Nestorians.--It was stated in the April Herald that the mission had been constrained to send two of their number to Teheran, -- Messrs. Perkins and Stocking, --for the purpose of submitting to the government a correct view of their operations. This step had become necessary in consequence of the unfavorable report of two Mohammedan meerzas, appointed, --at the instance of the French envoy, and with the consent of the Russian ambassador, --to proceed to Oroomiah, and inquire into the truth of the allegation that the mission had detached certain Nestorians from their original ecclesiastical connection. After Messrs. Perkins and Stocking had made such statements and explanations as seemed to be called for, the Russian ambassador procured a firman, directing that the three Nestorians...
