Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Practical Tests in Commercial and Higher Arithmetic It is undoubtedly true that many pupils, who can solve with ease even the difficult problems given in their text-books, fail in the solution of simple business problems stated in business terms and offering no special key, by position or otherwise, to the particular case or principle involved in their solution. Pure business problems contain such varying cases and subjects as to admit of solution only through a thorough knowledge of general principles, and by continual drill in practical work. Furthermore, to secure the best results, the arithmetic work must be co-ordinated as far as possible with business practice, bookkeeping, commercial law, etc. Only thus can pupils learn to how great an extent the general principles of percentage and higher arithmetic underlie and form the basis of nearly all business calculations. The problem, therefore, of how best to drill and review pupils in commercial and higher arithmetic is one that still proves, to many a teacher, exceedingly difficult of solution. The object of the arithmetic course is to...
