But from meeting on an Isle of Wight cliff top, to getting engaged in Thailand, and finally tying the knot in London, it was one hell of a journey that had taken them there. The Bumpy Road to Married Bliss follows the many funny and touching twists and turns of Donny and Chris's journey towards their wedding day; from being born on different continents, to organising a multi-faith, trans-Atlantic, inter-racial wedding with disapproving families in tow - proving that the course of true love really doesn't run smooth. Tender, honest and told from both Donny and Chris's points of view in alternating chapters, this is a modern day love story you won't be able to put down.
